DUEL SPEED RACE ON ATLANTA TRACK

Dawson Wins in Neck and Neck Fight For Honors With Ralph Mulford.

FINISH OF 200-MILE EVENT

Exciting Contest Watched With Great Interest—Marmon Car Takes the Lead—Events of Speedway Yesterday.

Speedway, Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Joe Dawson's yellow Marmon car was just 31-5 seconds ahead of Ralph Mutford's big white Lozier at the finish of the 200-mile automobile race here today.

The duel between these two began immediately after the one hundredth mile. Dawson was then far behind on account of a stop to change tires.

"Changing tires" is merely the technical expresion for what happened to Dawson. There was no exchange about it for he stopped at the pits with his right rear wheel entirely devoid of the semblance of a tire, and the iron rim showering sparks as it ground the track. The Lozier stopped soon afterward to make a real exchange of tires, putting the cars on even terms.

Bad luck flattened another of Dawson's tires at the 140 mile and in the very same lap it reduced one of the Lozier tires to ribbons.

Thereafter Tuck kept out of the game and a new element, Mulford's daring replaced it. The Marmon was running the faster, but on the bad turn of the track, where two drivers have been killed, Mulford with full speed on would shoot ahead of Dawson who always played the bad corner safe.

As they struck the dangerous turn for the last time, it was Dawson, who took it at highest speed, shooting into a lead which he held to the finish. Time two hours 51 minutes 12.73 seconds.

The winner took the Atlanta trophy and $1,000 in cash. Mulford received $500, Joe Horan, who finished third in a Lozier received $200.

The seven events in addition to the long race were all at 10 to 20 miles.

FIRE AT SOUTHERN PINES.

Piney Woods Inn Completely Destroyed—Loss Will Reach $30,000.

Charlotte, N. C., Nov. 4.—Fire of an unknown origin late today destroyed Piney Woods Inn, at Southern Pines, N. C. There were no guests in the hotel, which was to have been opened for the Winter on December 1st. The loss was complete, reaching $30,000 and the insurance only partially covers it. The Philadelphia National League baseball team has made the hostelry headquarters for a number of seasons and already had contracts for accommodations next Spring.

Washington, Nov. 4.—President Taft has cancelled the order promulgated by the Navy Department, detailing two speedy torpedo boat destroyers to follow the flight of Aviator McCurdy from the decks of the steamer Kaiserin Auguste Victoria 50 miles at sea to land, because he thought it would be inconsistent with previous refusals to permit such use of naval vessels.

Belfast, Ireland, Nov. 4.—A swarm of workmen are adding the finishing touches to the steamship Olympic, the largest vessel in the world. The Olympic will carry a crew of 860 men and has passenger room for 6,000 people. The total tonnage of the Olympic is 45,000 tons, exceeding her nearest rival by 13,000 tons. Her llength is 882 1-2 feet, or nearly a sixth of a mile, exceeding her nearest rival by nearly 100 feet. The vessel cost $7,500,000 and will placed in passenger service during the winter between New York and Liverpool.

AUTO ACCIDENT NEAR RAEFORD

Geo. B. McLeod and T. L. Johnson, of Lumberton, Victims—Train Demolished the Machine—Injury May be Fatal.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Lumberton, N. C., Nov. 4.—A telegram received here from Raeford at 2:20 o'clock this afternoon conveying the distressing intelligence that Mr. G. B. McLeod had been seriously hurt and Mr. T. L. Johnson slightly hurt as the result of the automobile, in which they were riding, being struck by a train near Raeford.

The car was torn to pieces, but Mr. Pate, who was driving it, saved himself by jumping. Mr. McLeod was hurried to a hospital in Fayetteville as soon as possible, where later reports indicate that his injuries are not so serious as at first feared. The injuries are internal. No bones were broken and the physicians say it is impossible to say yet to what extent Mr. McLeod is injured, but they hope he will be able to come here in a few days. Upon receipt of the report of the accident Mrs. McLeod, accompanied by her brother-in-law, Mr. Sandy McLeod, and Mr. W. S. Cobb, left for Fayetteville in an automobile. They were followed later by Mr. H. M. McAllister and other friends.

ROOSEVELT SPEAKING IN IOWA

Campaigning Over the State in Behalf of the Republican Ticket—Cordially Received—First Speech at Davenport.

Des Moines, Iowa, Nov. 4.—Through snow, sleet, rain and biting cold, Theodore Roosevelt campaigned over Iowa today in behalf of the Republican ticket. His reception was distinctly cordial. People pattered through the slush in crowds to see him and hear him speak. They cheered him with as much enthusiasm as could be mustered on such a day.

Colonel Roosevelt heard last month that he was being criticised in this State by persons who believed that he espoused one set of doctrines in the West and another in the East, but he found hearty welcome awaiting him. In his speech here tonight he endorsed Governor Carroll and the State ticket and put in a good word for Senator Cummins. He did not attempt to go into local politics, but confined himself largely to appeals for sport of the general principles which he said the Republican party as a whole represented. This evening he addressed several thousand members of the Iowa State Teachers' Association on education and good citizenship before speaking at the campaign rally.

The reception of Colonel Roosevelt at Des Moines was the most striking of the day. In spite of the unfavorable conditions the downtown streets were lined with crowds which cheered constantly. Colonel Roosevelt was taken at once to the University Church of Christ, where he spoke to more than 2,000 high school pupils. After tonight's meeting he went to his car to start on the homeward trip. He is due in Chicago in the morning and will be met there by representatives of the Ohio Republican State Committee, who will take him across Ohio in a special car. He will speak at Toledo and Cleveland.

UNCLE SAM MAY INTERFERE.

Marines May Stop the Revolution on Now in Honduras.

Washington, Nov. 4.—In the event of a hostile attack on foreigners at Ampala, Honduras, it is not anticipated here that the United States gunboat Princeton will find it necessary to shell the town. Instead, Commandre Hayes probably will send marines ashore to take JoseValladares, the revolutionary leader, into custody which act, it is believed would end the revolution. The gunboat Yorktown is due at Ampala tomorrow to relieve the Princeton.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 4.—Within a few weeks of liberty after serving more than four years of a five year sentence in the Federal prison here, Henry H. Davis, of Kentucky, was killed yesterday when he fell from a scaffold around the new administration building at the prison, a distance of 47 feet. Davis was convicted of counterfeiting. His relatives, it is said, are now living in Oklahoma.

TOOK FOUR HOURS BUTLER TO REPLY

New Moses of Republican Party Made His Much Advertised Speech.

PERSONAL ATTACKS AND ABUSE

D corztes Daniels, Simmons and Overman With Honorable Badge of His Disfavor.—Repudiated Bonds and Prettigrew's.

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 4.—From 1:30 to 5:30 o'clock this afternoon, ex-United States Senator Marion Butler talked to a crowd that filled the opera house, discussing briefly some political issues in this State and then answering charges made against him.

Personal attacks [illegible]itor Daniels of the News and Observer, and Senator Simmons, were the most scathing this caustic speaker could make, and were probably never equalled in a North Carolina campaign. "Lying cowardly scoundrels," were among the mildest characterization of these men. He explained that he had challenged either or both to meet him today. Getting down to bond matters he pronounced the charges against him as willful lies, explaining that the South Dakota bonds were an honest debt. He had considered it no improper act to become counsel for the collection of these bonds two weeks before his term as United States Senator expired. As to the advertisement in the New York Post, and other papers, for repudiated bonds, he said the advertisement was gotten up by other counsel and when he saw that bonds had been gotten together through this advertisement, he refused to have anything to do with them.

He read a letter he wrote Judge Coler & Co., New York, advising them of having nothing to do with them, saying: "If an attempt is made to collect these bonds, I not only will not be employed, but I would oppose such efforts." He read a telegram from ex-Senator Pettigrew, stating that he had been shown by Judge Coler & Co., this letter of Marian Butler, dated January, 1906, in which he refused to have anything to do with the collection of any Southern State bonds that were not honest and for which the State did not receive par value. He pictured prominent Democrats of the period inspiring and profiting by the fraudulent bonds, held up a copy of so-called "suppressed report of a later bond investigating committee" and said the reading of it would strike consternation to the hearts of members of many prominent Democratic families in the State. Since the issue had been so viciously pressed by Democratic campaigners he proposed to see to it this column is reprinted and circulated in North Carolina.

Then Butler opened up on Editor Josephus Daniels, and Senator Simmons with personal ridicule. He gave Senator Overman denunciation for attacks on him, declared he hated to drag the dead into the conflict, but there were reasons why Overman would not meet him. One was the entanglement of kinspeople in repudiated bond frauds. They were pressing this bond fight on him now and if it is kept up "there would be such a rattling of dry bones in graveyards of various prominent families as would spread consternation among them indeed. He closed with a recitation of the vast amount of work he says he still does for North Carolina at Washington without charge.

GAVE BLOOD TO BROTHER.

Man Savagely Bitten by Hog Had His Leg Amputated.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 4.—George F. Robertson, of Chase City, Va., in the Memorial Hospital here today, gave about a pint of his blood to save the life of his brother, G. W. Robertson, who was having one of his legs amputated. The latter was savagely bitten by a hog a few days ago and his physicians saw that the amputation alone would save him.

A SEVERE STORM IN MIDDLE STATES

One of the Worst November Storms in Years in Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON HAS TROUBLE

Wire Communication Badly Crippled.—Caused Wreck Near Scranton.—Snow in Maryland and other Places.

Washington, November 4.—The National capital communicated intermittently with the outside world today. Wires in all directions were blown down by a severe storm, accompanied by rain and snow which struck the city last night.

No direct wire communication between here and the north could be had, while conditions in other directions were almost as bad, although a limited outlet and inlet for news was had by way of the West.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 4.—The storm which struck this section of the State last night developed into almost a blizzard. It was responsible for a collision of a Delaware and Hudson coal train and an Erie freight nearest Forest City. Henry Gratton, of Carbondale, conductor of the coal train was killed and two trainmen were badly injured.

In Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—The northeast gale, which came in from the ocean yesterday, developed during the night into one of the worst November storms in years. In the mountain districts of Pennsylvania snow fell to the depta of twelve inches and in some places drifted badly. Railroad and trolley service in these sections is impeded. The storm was accompanied by a high wind, which played havoc with telegraph and telephone wires.

Part of the Anthracite coal region is snow-bound. At Delano one of the highest points in the region, and at Frackville, more than a foot of snow fell and drifted in places to three feet.

Trolley service was maintained with difficulty and the Pennsylvania railroad was obliged to use the tracks of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company because of a heavy drift.

Business of all kinds in Schuylkill county was practically at a standstill, the storm having caught the region entirely unawares.

Harrisburg, Lancaster, York, Williamsport an dother points west of Philadelphia are cut off from all wire communication.

Snow in Maryland.

Baltimore, Nov. 4.—Last night's storm which played such havoc at the aviation field, caused serious interruption to telegraph and telephone service. The long distance telephone companies report no communication in any direction.

This afternoon the storm showed signs of abatement a thought a mixture of snow and rain was still falling and a strong northeast wind was blowing. The snowfall, which was the first of the winter, was general throughout Maryland.

New York Suffers.

New York, Nov. 4.—A storm of mid-winter intensity which came booming up the Atlantic coast, last night, bringing with it sharp gales and heavy falls of snow and rain, left today a broad trail of broken wire communication along the seaboard. Telegraph companies were beset with difficulty in all directions. The storm was apparently severest between Baltimore and Washington, all wires being down between those cities.

Pennsylvania suffered from a soggy, clinging snow, and wires across the State were either down or worked only intermittently. Early communication with Chicago was obtained by way of Boston, thence to the west.

Communication with eastern points was affected by the snow storm which brought down the snow-coated wires. New York state felt the storm and wires worked poorly.

Broken wire communications affected some of the railroads and trains from distant points were in some cases far behind their schedules.

Five steamships due at quarantine this morning are still unreported at 9:50. The steamers are evidently detained by the high gales and mountainous seas.

Storm Hits Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 4.—Norfolk was practically cut off from telegraphic communication with the outside world for several hours today on account of the terrific northwester that has been sweenig the Virginia coast for the past 24 hours.

Wires to the North and West went down early today and it was not until tonight that communication was restored west of Washington.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Retirement with pay for old government clerks is recommended to the Secretary of the Treasury by M. O. Chance, auditor of the Postoffice Department, in his annual report today. He declares an unusually large proportion of the employes of his office have passed their usefulness and that the average of efficiency among them is below the standard.

TO FACE CHARGES.

Chicago Attorney Against Whom Charges of Bribery are Preferred, According to a dispatch received last night.

ILLINOIS BRIBERY MATTER UP

State's Attorney Wayman's Petition to Investigate Conspiracy Charges Granted—Indictment Returned Against Erbstein.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—On petition of State's Attorney Wayman, Judge Kanavanaugh late today appointed former Judge John Barton Payne, as a special State's attorney to investigate the charges of conspiracy made by Mr. Wayman against Attorney Charles E. Erbstein and others. The action is the result of steps taken by Erbstein to have the Chicago Bar Association begin disbarment proceedings against Mr. Wayman for alleged jury bribing.

Immediately following his appointment of former Judge Payne, Judge Kavanaugh issued an order directing Attorney Fogle, of the Chicago Bar Association, to turn over to the grand jury the audavit making charges of bribery against Mr. Wayman, which Erbstein had filed with the association. Judge Kavanaugh also entered an order directing a certain witness to ten the grand jury the name of the juror alleged by Erbstein to have been bribed.

Within two hours after Judge Kavanaugh had issued his orders in connection with the special inquiry the grand jury returned indictments against Erbstein, McBride and others, charging conspiracy to do an illegal act. Three unidentified men were also specified in the John Doe indictments returned by the grand jury, in connection with the Erbstein case and the alleged conspiracy to injure Mr. Wayman.

It is expected by attachees of the criminal court that the October grand jury, which still is in session, will make the investigation under direction of Mr. Payne. Subpoenas have already been issued for several witnesses. Mr. Wayman says he wants the inquiry taken up immediately because he believes the charges should be considered by a legal body before disbarment proceedings are taken up by the bar association.

SHOT DAUGHTER AND SELF.

Pitiful Tragedy at Scranton, Pa.—Woman's Desperate Deed.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 4.—Mrs. Harriet T. Turner, 40 years old, shot her 17-years-old daughter, Margerie, last night and also sent a bullet into her own breast, inflicting what physicians believe to be a fatal wound. The tragedy was discovered by a milk man today, who found Mrs. Turner buried in 15 inches of snow on her front porch. Her head was resting on a pillow.

Mrs. Turner's husband, William, and her son, Willard, are in the University of Pennsylvania hospital at Philadelphia. The husband is in a critical condition from asthma and the son is being treated for blindness in one eye.

The authorities believe that worry over her family troubles temporarily deranged Mrs. Turner's mind.

A 11-year-old son was not harmed. Mrs. Turner told the doctors that she loved the boy too much to take him along with her into death, but she thought the daughter would have too many troubles in life and decided to shoot her.

DIES OF FOOTBALL INJURY.

Roanoke, Va., Nov. 4.—James W. Mock, a member of the senior class at Roanoke College, died today as a result of injuries received a week ago while playing football in a practice game on the college field. He was 20 years old and a native of Damascus, Ga.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 4.—Percy S. Stephenson and Henry W. Anderson, special masters by appointment of Federal Judge Waddill will tomorrow in Portsmouth make sale of the properties and franchises of the Albemarle & Chesapeake Canal Company to satisfy a $500,000 first mortgage given in January, 1879, to the Central Trust Company, of New York.

BICKETT CHARMS HIS HEARERS HERE

AT COURT HOUSE LAST NIGHT

Pleasing and Eloquent Presentation of Issues of Campaign—Distinguished Visitor Entertained While in City.

Not a very large, but a most representative audience of his fellow citizens of New Hanover county, last night in the Court House in this city, listened for two hours to a most eloquent, witty and thoroughly effective address by Attorney General Thos. W. Bickett, of North Carolina, on the issues of the present campaign, the speaker charming his hearers at one moment with an intermittent flight of eloquence and convulsing them with laughter in another with his scintillating wit and rare good humor.

Even "Congressman" Iredell Meares' pet bird dog, "Teddy," who had wandered into the court room, couldn't resist the inimitable Bickett and once when the speaker was leaning far over the judge's bench from which he spoke and was popping his finger and gesticulating vigorously while sending home some good, sound Democratic point, "Teddy" arose magnificently to the occasion by putting both paws up on the stand and wagging his tail briskly, in spite of the fact that it was not "His Master's Voice." The incident brought down the house.

Mr. Bickett's was indeed a great speech and infused more real enthusiasm in the campaign than has yet been manifest. The Court House was well filled in spite of the rather unsensonable weather and when the speaker came in with his host, the Hon. John D. Bellamy, he was greeted most cordially by his audience. Chairman Marsden Bellamy, of the County Democratic Executive Committee, called the meeting to order and presented Hon. John D. Bellamy, who responded in a vigorous speech in which he contrasted the origin and records of the two great parties in the Nation, extolled the righteous principles of Democracy and introduced the distinguished guest as one of the ablest champions of this doctrine; an able lawyer, a lofty patriot, an upright citizen, the ablest of the young Democracy of North Carolina.

Mr. Bickett keenly appreciated the exceeding kind words of his friends in presenting him, the representative audience which greeted him and the flattering manner in which the newspapers had seen fit to herald his coming. The temptation was great, he said, to let it rest right there, to plead guilty to what they had said and preserve an eloquent silence. He then told the story of the Englishman who came to this country in search of the brainiest lawyer, was directed to Albert J. Beveridge, whom he was told would admit all that had been said about him. The speaker excused his impairment of voice by "rough usage" having been campaigning for a month in the mountains, but his audience at the conclusion of the speech were not in a frame of mind to tolerate an apology.

As a representative of Democracy he was glad to bring good tidings of the campaign in this the "finally brethren" stage of the game. He had been over most of the State and everywhere the signs were encouraging. He had spoken in the Fifth district and he was sure that the people of New Hanover would hear with exceeding great pleasure that the election of Hon. Chas. Manly Stedman is an absolute certainty. He will carry all but Surry, Stokes and Forsyth, which will give Republican majorities, which were quoted, but his majority in the other counties will neutralize these figures with Guilford and Granville to give him on the whole 1,200 to 1,500 majority. These assurances were received with enthusiastic applause by Maj. Stedman's many friends here.

In the eighth district everything indicates the election of Doughton over Cowles, the former making a remarkable campaign both on the stump and in the "bush." The tenth district, the speaker admitted, was close with no money to bet on either side. Grant and Gudger are running neck and neck.

"But it is everywhere a Democratic year," Mr. Bickett said. "The truth is a great politcal revival is in progress not confined to our own land, but extending to the ends of the earth. The divine right of Kings is being battered down before the divine rights of men. In our own land the hour of ninety and nine has struck. Monopoly is waging a losing fight. The dollar is giving way to the man. The mills of the Gods are grinding exceedingly slow but they are grinding exceedingly fine those who have stiffened their necks to the appeals of the people."

The speaker said he was fond of tracing human races and develop-

MONDAY AT 7 P. M. CURTAIN FALLS

All Votes in Popularity Contest Must Positively be in Hand by that Hour-Details of Final Wind-up

The contest closes Monday night, Nov. 7th, at 7 o'clock sharp. The idea seems to be prevalent that the contest closed yesterday, but such is not the fact. Yesterday noon was the hour after which no five-vote coupons would be counted. All coupons given for subscriptions will be counted up to 7 o'clock Monday P. M. and the reserves counted by the judges.

The publication number will be limited to five thousand a day and no more than that amount will be published on the subscription coupons up to the last and final count.

The big box will be in the office from 3 o'clock today, in which contestants are to put their reserve coupons to be counted by the judges. Vote coupons may be placed in this box right up to the closing hour of 7 o'clock Monday night.

Call at the office on Monday and get a big envelope or use your own envelope, placing a list of subscriptions, the money, and the contestant's name (meaning the subscriptions that you have not yet received the vote coupons on) together with the reserve votes you have on hand in this envelope, seal it and drop it into the box which will be sealed and only opened by the judges with a can opener, and who will take them out and count them. Be sure to get your envelope in the box before 7 o'clock as there will be an alarm clock set to ring at seven sharp and after that rings there can be no more votes cast.

Reserves.

If any contestant has sent in subscriptions and received in exchange for them a coupon calling for votes, remember that this is not a receipt for votes, but the actual votes themselves, and this slip must be sent in in order to have the votes counted at the final counting by the judges. Be sure to mail them from out of town, not on the last train, but in time so that they will arrive to be placed in the box before 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Subscriptions will be taken in at the contest office up to the last minute of the contest, that is, up to 7 o'clock Monday night. All subscriptions and votes must be turned in by that time, for nothing can be counted that is not here at the beginning of the final counting.

Nominations close tonight, and no more will be received after today.

Old and New Subscribers.

Contestants and their friends are requested to abide by the rule established at the outset, and published from time to time, with reference to old and new subscribers. New subscribers are those whose names were not on the subscription books at the beginning of the contest and changes for the purpose of securing an extra number of votes are neither fair to the paper nor to the other contestants in the race. The Star proposes to deal perfectly on the square with the contestants and it certainly has a right to expect the same treatment from the contestants and their friends. On the last night of the contest each name will be scrutinized closely and votes will not be allowed in extra number on subscriptions that are and have a right to be classed as old subscribers. We trust that every contestant and our friends will be perfectly on the square with us on this matter, as they will expect us to be fair and square towards them.

Standing of Contestants.

The standing of contestants at the count yesterday afternoon was as follows, subject to the usual conditions of reserve votes to be cast later:

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldnt it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency? I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: "Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-1351 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

NEWS OF LAURINBURG.

Shooting Near Town—Confederate Monument—Train Service.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Laurinburg, N. C., Nov. 3.—There was a rather serious shooting affair today near the farm of Mr. R. E. Lee, about four miles from town. Ernest Moore went to the home of Louise Johnson, an aged colored woman, and was creating some disturbance with the children. She came out and ordered him away from the premises when he became enraged and shot her in the side with a shotgun. It is not certain that she will recover. The negro who did the shooting has not yet been arrested.

There was a fire yesterday afternoon at the Fields residence adjoining the Methodist church property. In some manner the fire originated just under the roof of the main part of the building. It was discovered before it had gained much headway and the fire department had little trouble in routing the flames. The damage will amount to less than $500.

The friends of Dr. J. McN. Smith, of Rowland, will be pleased to know that he is recovering from his recent illness. Dr. Smith was brought to the Laurinburg Hospital on Monday for the purpose of an operation for intestinal trouble. Dr. W. D. James performed the operation, which was a complete success. As a surgeon Dr. James has few superiors in the State.

As a means of raising funds for the benefit of the Confederate monument, the Daughters of the Confederacy will conduct a chrysanthemum show on the night of the 8th, of this month. Various prizes have been offered and a large number have already entered the contest. This is the first show of the kind ever given in Laurinburg and is attracting wide attention.

Beginning with the 14th of November there will be better passenger accommodations for Laurinburg to and from the south. The A. C. L. Railway Company has agreed to run its train into Laurinburg over the Laurinburg & Southern track. The train has been stopping in McColl. It will now reach Laurinburg at 10:30 P. M. and leave at 5:25 A. M., giving direct connection to Florence, Columbia, Charleston and other points, and a trip to either of these points can be made in the same day.

BANKER ADLER A LOSER.

Application for Re-Hearing Denied at New Orleans Yesterday.

New Orleans, Nov. 4.—Application for a re-hearing by both the defendant and the government before the United States Court of Appeals in the case of William Adler, former president of the State National Bank, of New Orleans, was denied today. Adler, who was convicted of misapplication and abstraction of funds of the State National Bank, and sentenced to six years in the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, was recently granted a new trial by the Court of Appeals. Adler's request for a re-hearing was based on the appellate court's refusal to order the lower court to dismiss one of the numerous counts of the indictments against him.

DENIAL FROM MACKENZIE.

Not Informed of Indictment in Alaskan Land Scandal.

Washington, Nov. 4.—While it was denied today by counsel for Donald MacKinzie, whose name was mentioned in the list of those indicted yesterday in connection with the Alaska claims, that he had information in regard to his indictment it is admitted that he has gone out to arrange to give bond in the case. Mr. MacKenzie is said to be one of the pioneers in the Alaskan country.

Mr. MacKenzie simply bought claims from the locators according to his counsel and by that action he violated no law. Mr. MacKenzie's purchase of the claims, it was also said, was effected with the knowledge of former Secretary of the Interior Garfield.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 4.—Sergeant J. D. Manly, of the Texas National Guard, who stabbed with his bayonet and killed Louis Richenstein a spectator during a visit of President Taft to Dallas a year ago, was given a life sentence in the penitentiary today by a jury in the criminal court.

Manly has always claimed that the killing was accidental.

As an outcome of the conviction of Sergeant Manly, all of the officers of the third regiment, Texas National Guard, of which Manly is a member, have tendered their resignations to the adjutant general of the State.

STORM ENDS AVIATION MEET.

Most of Machines Wrecked and Burned at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 4.—Storm last night effectually ended the aviation meet here by wrecking most of the machines on the local field. The storm, sweeping across Hampton roads, overturned the hangars and burned the aeroplanes under the ruins. A large poll fell across one of the bi-planes, tearing its wings and breaking the bamboo supports. The Hudson flier, in which Curtiss made the Albany-New York flight, is badly damaged. The wind reached a velocity of fifty miles an hour.

CASHIER TOOK OWN LIFE.

Unable to Meet Demands of Depositor—Committed Suicide.

Seaside, Ore., Nov. 3.—Edward Henninger, cashier of the Seaside National Bank, committed suicide here today, as a sequel to the alleged looting of the bank of all of its deposits.

It is said that when the bank's doors were opened today it was unable to meet demands for money. When Walter Henninger, a brother, who had gone East to negotiate a loan, failed to telegraph funds, Edward Henninger went home and took his life.

FIRE AND A DEATH.

Home of Mr. Scott McCallum Destroyed—Relative Dropped Dead.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 3.—The home of Mr. Scott McCallum was burned this afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. McCallum was away from home spending the day with her mother and Mr. McCallum had gone to his farm in the country and they did not know how the fire originated. Most of the furniture was saved, but was very badly damaged.

Miss Flora C. McCallum died suddenly at her home here this afternoon. She had started to the fire above mentioned and had reached the front door, when she fell dead. Miss McCallum was a maiden lady and had made her home for the past several years with her niece, Mrs. Connor Cottingham. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and will be mourned by a large number of relatives and friends.

FEAR TROUBLE IN SPAIN.

A Monster Labor Demonstration Will be Prevented.

Madrid, Nov. 4.—The government announced today it would prevent at all hazards a monster labor manifestation arranged for tomorrow at Barcelona to which city the strikers at Sabadell have declared that they will march. General Weyler, captain general of Catalonia, has a big force of troops at his command, but these will be reinforced by 15,000 soldiers.

London, Nov. 4.—A rumor from Paris that King Alfonso, of Spain had been assassinated was circulated through the stock exchange at the opening today, but it was considered to be on a par with the stories of revolution in Spain that originated recently in the same quarter with the purpose of influencing the market. The result of an inquiry was to discredit the story.

POSTAGE PLAN EXPLAINED.

Certain Class of Publications Will be Eliminated From Increase.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Postmaster General Hitchcock's plan of requiring the magazines to pay increased postage on their advertising pages sufficient to eliminate postal deficits and warrant, in the near future, one cent postage on first-class mail, was officially explained today.

Postmaster General Hitchcock believes that in carrying on the administration's purpose to accomplish reasonable increase in the postage rates on certain kinds of second-class mail a distinction should be made between advertising and what is termed legitimate reading matter. He does favor under present conditions an increase in the rates of postage for carrying reading matter. Any increase thus applied, he points out, will place a special burden on a large number of second-class publications such as educations and religious periodicals, that derive little or no profit from advertising. It is the circulation of this type of publications which aid so effectively in the educational and moral advancement of the people, that the government can best afford to encourage. For these publications and also for any other legitimate reading matter in periodical form, Mr. Hitchcock suggests a continuation of the present low postage rate of one cent a pound and recommends that the proposed increase in rate be applied only to magazine advertising matter.

Danville, Ill., Nov. 4.—The Chicago Southern Railroad, a coal road belonging to a company headed by John W. Walsh, former banker, who is now serving a term in the Federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kans., was hold here today in compliance with a decree entered by Judge Kohlsaat, in the United States Circuit Court in Chicago. The price was $1,000,000 and only one bid was made.

Wilmington People Give Credit Where Credit is Due.

People of Wilmington who suffer with sick kidneys and bad backs want a kidney remedy that can be depended upon. The best is Doan's Kidney Pills, a medicine for the kidneys only, made from pure roots and herbs, and the only one that is backed by cures in Wilmington. Here's Wilmington testimony:

Miss Maggie Rivenbark, 105 Dock St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I found great benefit through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at R. R. Bellamy's Drug Store. I suffered from constant, dull pains in my back and some days I could hardly get about. My kidneys were weak and I was caused much annoyance. I tried several remedies but nothing gave me relief until Doan's Kidney Pills were used. They proved to be just what I required and in a short time cured me so completely that my trouble has never returned."

The traveling man whom ex-Governor Glenn called a liar, kept on fishing for the compliment till he got it.

After next Tuesday's election results, North Carolina Republicans will be agreed that Marion Butler cooked their goose and that "local self-government" only made it warm for them.

The difference between Judas Iscariot and others of his class is that Judas didn't stop to deny anything but "went and straightway hanged himself." Thus he prevented himself from becoming an issue.

What Marion Butler is, what he has done and what he is likely to do, does not worry us so much as the fact that he has deceived so many men in North Carolina into believing that he is a worthy leader and safe political guide.

Republican campaigners in one breath give the credit to the tariff for high prices and high wages and in the next breath deny that the tariff is responsible for the high cost of living. According to that argument increased expenses dont' increase expenses.

A man at Lawrenceburg, Ind., laughed twelve hours on a stretch last Thursday because a mule had been traded off as a "shaved tail" horse. He should have postponed his laugh till after next Tuesday so he could join the Democrats in a two years' laugh over the defeat of the Republican party.

Teddy will be terribly surprised after next Tuesday how unanimously his party will saddle the blame on him. They will not be willing even to let him shift part of it on protection and the high cost of living. Uncle Joe will chuckle that they dropped the idea that he was a scapegoat and that they finally put the thing on the Rough Rider for butting in.

In his New York campaign speeches Col. Roosevelt denied that he was an issue in the New York campaign However, it is not for the Colonel to say whether or not he is an issue. His opponents and the voters made him an issue and pushed it for all it was worth, without his consent. This is one time when the Colonel is an issue in spite of himself. No doubt Taft will agree that Teddy is very much of an issue.

Men of honesty and integrity are proving themselves to be the biggest men in American politics. After all, it is the man who does right and means well, that is to get and hold the confidence of people. Every young man should note well that the biggest man is the best man with ability. The poltroon, the crook and the trickster are of few days and full of trouble. Get straight and keep straight. The man who stays in the middle of the road is bound to get there in public opinion.

Former United States Senator Burton, of Kansas, was sent to the penitentiary for acting as attorney against the United States while he was a Senator. He simply prosecuted claims in the departments at Washington. Marion Butler, while enjoying the honor of being a United States Senator from North Carolina, prosecuted South Dakota's bond claim and got judgment against the State which had honored him. It makes no difference whether the bonds represented a just claim or a repudiated obligation, the act was dishonorable and the only thing that did not make it a crime was that there was no North Carolina statute similar to the Federal statute under which Senator Burton had to wear stripes.

CAMPAIGN CLAPTRAP.

It is strange how some voters are influenced by the claptrap of some political spielers. Most any old thing goes as a political argument, and some men are actually misled into believing that the spieler has made a great point.

The Laurinburg Exchange fears some voters at Scotland village, a manufacturing locality in Scotland county, are going to be led off by some of the specious arguments of young Mr. J. J. Parker, the Republican opponent of Congerssman Page in the Seventh Congressional District. trict. Mr. Parker slipped quietly among cotton mill men at Scotland and in a speech to them he declared his confidence in his election next Tuesday over Mr. Page. All he needed, he declared, was some of Scotland's votes in order to induce the mill men to vote for him. He told them that in the North and Northwest, where the Republican party is in control of State affairs the wages of laboring men are decidedly higher than in North Carolina and other Southern States where the Democrats are in power. His speech was largely composed of that line of talk.

Mr. Parker probably knows better than to make such arguments as that himself and if he does he is only appealing to the ignorance of his hearers. He was holding out the idea to them that Republican State administrations cause increase in wages, whereas the regular Republican argument is that it is National control that brings prosperity and gives everybody a job at good wages. However, if we admit that National Republicanism is responsible for high wages in the Northwest why is it that wages are not uniformly high in the South under that same National Republicanism? Mr. Parker and others who make speeches to deceive the ignorant, may or may not know that wages vary in every State and section, and vary even in cities and counties of different States, not because of politics of any description but because of the opportunities for labor and largely because of the scarcity of labor of certain kinds. If Mr. Parker had wished to entertain the mill men on the subject of wages, he should have told them that while wages are $2.25 a day in the Northwest, they are $8 and $10 a day in Alaska under the same Republican administration.

Mr. Page's Republican opponent should have told the mill workers why wages are greater in Alaska than they are in the Northwest and why wages may be higher in the Northwest than they are in the South. Labor is scarcer in Alaska than it is in the Northwest and it costs Alaskan labor four times as much to live in Alaska than it does in the Northwest. Labor is also scarcer in the Northwest and it costs twice as much for laboring men to live there than it does in the South. Mr. Parker and laboring men also ought to know that laborers couldn't get 50 cents a day in some localities while in others they could get two or three dollars a day, owing altogether to what there is for labor to do and to what kind of labor it is and to what it is a workingman can do.

Some labor in Wilmington brings as high as $5 of $6 a day but the price depends upon the kind of work, the capabilities of the men for the work and the extensiveness of the demand for labor. That is the rule everywhere for all classes of labor, and the man who thinks any political party is responsible for the pay he gets for his work has another thought coming to him. The political spieler who at tempts to fool ignorant workingmen by arguments contrary to common sense are either ignoramuses or demagogues.

While Mr. Parker was speaking to those Scotland mill men he should have explained to them why it is under the Republican administration at Washington and its high tariff, the cotton mills in North Carolina have been idle a large part of the time for two years and meanwhile were paying neither low wages nor high wages for a considerable length of time.

State Republican Chairman Morehead has gone through the campaign without being hit, but he has had a right to dodge every time his man Butler has been hit.

After having visited Charlotte, Vice President Sherman spoke in Statesville and alluded to the Queen City as "Charlottesville." That's where the bloke lost 34,014 votes.

Mary Ann Butler is Mot Morehead's Ballinger. Morehead can't dump Butler and Butler won't dump himself. Nevertheless, they will both be in the dumps after next Tuesday.

Some men have been hung bitterly denying what had been proven on them by witnesses who never lied. Therefore, brethren, denials after conviction are often to be expected.

A New York woman has appeared in court with three husbands. It would be a mean man who would say that woman is better off with three husbands than a man with three wives.

CO-DEFENDANT IN THE PLOT.

In spite of Marion Butler's acknowledgment that while he held the honor of being a United States Senator from North Carolina, he did sue his State and recovered a verdict of $27,400 on repudiated bonds which South Dakota had been inveigled into accepting for the purpose of paving the way for a bigger raid, and notwithstanding the collateral evidence that his signature was attached to an advertisement subsequently calling upon holders of all kinds of repudiated bonds to rush in their claims, the ex-Populist Senator goes right on denying it. He certainly is entitled to put in a plea of defense of some character inasmuch as all the facts and the circumstances make it impossible for him to attempt to prove an alibi. He was too close to the job to do that.

The prisoner at the bar is entitled to the benefit of the doubt, but who the thunder has the doubt? In the meantime, while the defense is seeking to delay the cause by pretence of having discovered new evidence favorable to the accused, it is a sad proposition for North Carolina voters to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote against Butlerism and Republicanism, pending any proposed rehearing of the case. In the meantime, the defendant had better not monkey with any more "repudiated bonds of all kinds."

Ex-Senator R. F. Pettigrew, of South Dakota, particepts criminis in the bond plot, co-defendent, and a close ally of Butler in schemes around Washington, has published a letter in which he attempts to clear the skirts of Butler. Evidently he wants to take the blame himself so Butler can escape, but as he is beyond the jurisdiction of North Carolina and is one of the accused, his letter will be filed away as a contribution of humor to a matter more absurd and serious than it is ludicrous. Anyhow, Tom Pence writes from Washington that Pettigrew is one of the "gentlemen of the lobby" at the National Capitol and that he and Butler "have always stood together." Pettigrew, like Butler, has been identified with all three political parties and is known around Washington as "smart but slick.' Some men are more "slick" than smart, but it all goes with people who don't know any better. However, Pettigrew's "rep" and his affiliations, make it necessary for the jury to be reminded that the credibility of the witness must be taken into consideration—and also cum grano salis, or words to that effect.

Tom Pence learns at Washington that "at the present time Pettigrew is associated with Butler in one of the biggest Indian cases before the Court of Claims, being that of the Ute Indians, which involves lands to the value of approximately $10,000,000." He says Pettigrew does not appear as attorney of record but as a lobbyist before Congress to get the legislation on which the suit is based. We are sorry, but the defendant and his witness will have to be held for a higher court. In the meantime, vote the straight Democratic ticket next Tuesday and you won't make any mistake nor take any chances.

BURDENING SOME FOR OTHERS.

Our old friend, the Hon. James Wilson, Secretary of Agriculture, was a political spieler at Rome, N. Y., on Thursday. He is a good old soul and we would like to see him cultivating Democrats but he don't do it in election times. He is a partisan when it comes to politics. In his Rome speech he boasted that along the Northern border States they made 500 tons of sugar from beets and that our last sugar crop was worth in products and labor nearly $100,000,000. However, he said "Adopt Democratic policies and put sugar on the free list and the growth of beets and making sugar would stop."

A few people in Italy also might get rich making wheat at $2 a bushel under a tariff which would shut out American wheat. People who eat bread, however, would see sights while Italy would be encauraging the wheat industry. Secretary Wilson thinks it is right to make the consumers of sugar pay for fostering a sugar industry that presumably cannot support itself without going into the pockets of the people. Most any kind of business would make a good showing if all the people were taxell to help it.

By the way, one of the parties mixed up in the government suit charging conspiracy to defraud the government of more than 20,000 acres of Alaska coal lands valued at $200,000,000, is Henry T. Oxnard, of New York and California, president of the American Beet Sugar Company, which is the principal beneficiary of the bounties which sugar consumers have to pay to the beet sugar industry.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Marion Butler is North Carolina's most prominent Esau. He would sell his birthright for a mess of pottage.—Newbern Sun.

Be a little shy of silver dollars for a day or two. An ingenious gentleman has been introducing some which never knew a United States government mint into the State by way of Durham and Greensboro.—Charlotte Observer.

It is absurd to hear Republican speakers like Harry Skinner say that Marion Butler was forced into this campaign by the Democrats. We bet Duncan doesn't think the Democrats went to Washington and hauled him down here.—Newbern Sun.

In 1908 Morehead said Butler's statements were "absurd and utterly and gratuitously false." This is as true now as then. Was Morehead lying on Butler then? If not—and he was not—he ought to be ashamed to be his "yoke-devil" now.—Raleigh News and Observer.

In spite of Mr. Roosevelt's refusal to answer the World's Ten Questions, the public from time to time obtains new information as to the sources of his 1904 campaign fund. The Evening Post yesterday printed a circumstantial account of the visit of Henry C. Frick and H. McK. Twombly to the White House Oct. 8, 1908. After they left the purified atmosphere of that sanctuary they returned to "the bucketshops" of Wall Street and raised $100,000 from 'the ticker crowd" for Mr. Roosevelt. Mr. Frick is a director in the Steel Trust, the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Union Pacific Railroad and many othef great corporations. Mr. Twombly was a son-in-law of William H. Vanderbilt and was the financial representative of the Vanderbilt railroad interests.—New York World.

A few steel corporation men dined in Chicago a short time ago, and they were said to represent two billion dollars—not millions, but bilions—which had been created in the past few years out of the sweat and blood of suffering humanity. And yet the Republicans will refuse to revise the tariff which has protected these billionaires, and have even increased the rates on structural steel in the new tariff law so that their profits could be made larger. There is now absolutely no competition on structural steel, so the steel trust can charge 45 per cent.—which is the tariff protection—over and above a reasonable profit without fear of competition from any foreign quarter. Thus the cost of erecting re-enforced steel buildings is largely added to and rents are increased in proportion to the increased price of steel by reason of the tariff protection. Yet, Vice President Sherman in a speech in North Carolina defends the tariff law, and declares that high prices and high wages are the beneficent result of protective policies.—Greensboro Record.

The Black Diamond, published at Chicago, a leading organ of the coal trade, comments upon the situation created i the Southeastern States by the appearance of the new Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio Railroad as a transportation factor. In the first place it finds that, as is asserted in a case now before the Interstate Commerce Commission, the railroads concerned have arranged to let each road monopolize a certain field. "By way of example," we read, "the Southern Railway and the Carolina, Clinchfield & Ohio have divided between themselves the field comprising the eastern portion of Georgia, the Carolinas and a part of Florida. Moreover, they have said that only coal coming from the southwestern part of Virginia shall be sold in that territory. This blocks out the Coal Creek mines of Tennessee and virtually notifies them to keep their coal at home or sell it elsewhere." Further: "Instead of increased competition appearing among the carriers and, therefore, better transportation facilities, lowering the rates and broadening the market of the coal shippers, the rates have been advanced and the market of every shipper has been narrowed to a very decided degree. This is the direct result of a combination or agreement, or at least an understanding among the carriers." We sympathize with the Tennessee coal operators, who have undoubtedly been placed at great disadvantage. Their predicament, however, is merely the latest phase—an incident—of the railroad policy which grossly discriminates at all points against the Carolinas. We hail a new railroad system with great hopes, it is induced to acquiesce in the established policy, and as a result our rates are higher than before.—Charlotte Observer.

WHITEVILLE NEWS NOTES.

Railroad Wins in Supreme Court—Campaign—Progress of Drainage.

(Special Star Correspondent.)

Whiteville, Nov. 4.—An important case from Columbus county was this week decided by the Supreme Court that of Henry Coleman, Sr., of Fair Bluff, vs. the Atlantic Coast Line railway. Mr. Coleman was given a verdict for $4,000 by the jury, but the attorneys for the road, Messrs. Schulken, Toon & Schulken, carried the case up and the Supreme Court reversed the judgment. This, it is presumed, will end the matter. Mr. Coleman was driving across the track of the railway near Fair Bluff, when he was run into and badly injured by an approaching train. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Coleman had married.

Mr. Harry Hinson, an aged and respected citizen, died near Cerro Gordo, aged 85 years. Mr. Washington Paterson, another old citizen, died near Pireway. Both had lived long past the allotted term of man.

There never was a campaign conducted on a higher plane than the one in Columbus county. Both the Democrats and Republicans agreed to eliminate personalities and make their fight without rancor or bitterness, and to this rule both parties strictly adhered. Our people look to the upbuilding of their county as paramount to all else, and especially to politics, and determined, at the ouset, to do nothing to stir bad blood or create strife and division. Just as soon as the last vote is deposited all will go to work to drain our marshes and build good highways.

A gentleman near Whiteville a few years ago bought a tract of timber land in this county and he tells us he has already cleared $5,000 on his purchase and has over 100 acres left. Since the agitation of the drainage law the price of our marsh lands, formerly valueless, has gone up, and you canot buy them now at any reasonable figure. It is predicted that in five years work will be started draining every marsh and swamp in Columbus county.

Miss Annie Memory, daughter of Mr. S. E. Memory, one of the leading merchants of Whiteville, is attending Meredith College, and rooms near Miss Keith, who was so badly burned last week. Miss Memory writes home that she was among the first to reach the young lady, hearin gher screams.

THE CITY BOARD OF HEALTH

Superintendent of Health is Instructed to Have Samples of Water Supply Analyzed Twice a Month—Other Matters.

Realizing it to be their duty to protect, so far as in their power, the health of the people of the community regardless of whether the city ever sells any water, the City Board of Health in regular monthly session yesterday afternoon directed that the city superintendent of health have samples of the city water supply analyzed twice a month and to publish the report upon receipt of same from Raleigh, the samples to be taken from "dead ends" and not from much used mains, taking the position that if any part of the system is contaminated it is only a question of time until all the tips are effected.

The matter was brought to the attention of the board by Dr. T. S. Burbank, one of its members, who said that he had advised his patients and would continue to so advise until the analysis shows up differently, not to use the city water. Other physician-members of the board have previously expressed views on the city water supply similar to those held by Dr. Burbank. Members of the board informally discussed the matter of increased water rates, Dr. Burbank stating that his bill had jumped from $2.50 a quarter to over $9 a quarter.

Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health, referred to the smallpox situation and again stated that the equipment at the pest house is not adequate. He said that patients able to take care of themselves at their homes are not taken to the pest house as long as they obey the quarantine regulations. When they violate the quarantine they are sent to the pest house regardless of their wishes. Dr. Akerman said that so far no deaths have occurred in this city from smallpox.

In this connection Dr. Akerman said that as he understood it there is a State law requiring that all school children be vaccinated and that he had been reliably informed there were children in the Wilmington schools who have not been vaccinated but have certificates from their physician that they are not in physical condition to be vaccinated. Dr. Akerman stated further that in his opinion a child who is not physically able to be vaccinated is not in condition to attend school and in this view Dr. Burbank concurred. Upon motion of Dr. Burbank, the city superintendent of health was instructed to write the school authorities that all children must show certificates of vaccination or they will not be permitted to attend school.

Reports of the health department and the meat and dairy inspector for the month of October, which have already been published in The Star, were read. Mayor Walter G. MacRae presided and members in attendance were Dr. Joseph Akerman, superintendent and secretary; Dr. T. S. Burbank and Mr. Joseph D. Smith.

FISHERIES GET NEW BOAT

Steamer Lizzie Coleman Arrived From Chesapeake Bay This Week.

A new fishing steamer, the Lizzie Coleburn, recently purchased by the Ocean Fisheries, arrived this week at the factory down the river from the Chesapeake Bay, where she has been in service for a year or more. The new steamer will be added to several others, owned by the same company, and will make regular trips during the season for deep sea fish, which are utilized in making oil and fish fertilizer. The Lizzie Colburn is a boat about the size of the Nellie B. Dey, also owned by the Ocean Fisheries, and is well equipped for the service. On account of the increasing business of the Ocean Fisheries and the good catches of the menhaden this season, the purchase of a new boat was necessary.

Capt. Bussells is master of the fishing steamer. The Colburn arrived early in the week and made a good trip down the coast from the Chesapeake.

Election Officers Instructed.

The officers of the approaching election met with the Board of Elections in the office of the chairman, Cameron F. MacRae, Esq., yesterday morning for the purpose of receiving instructions relative to the Australian ballot law under which the election next Tuesday will be held. A majority of the election officers were present and listened with interest to the remarks of Chairman MacRae, who will probably have an article in tomorrow's paper containing information for the voter.

SALVATION ARMY CAMPS.

For Mothers and Children.

Hundreds of tired mothers and sickly children were given fresh air and rest during the past Summer by the Salvation Army at its fresh air camps.

There are many tired mothers who have sickly children who were not fortunate enough to be given such an outing and we ask those mothers as a duty to themselves and their children to read the two following letters:

Mrs. Rose Hawthorne Lathrop, who has done so much good among the children of New York City, says: "Little children seem to delight in taking Vinol. In my work among the destitute sick, I give Vinol in many cases where it would be impossible to give cod liver oil in any other form, on account of the extreme weakness of the patient's stomach. I have known Vinol to restore appetite and infuse new life in many cases of sick women and children when everything else failed."

Mrs. C. W. Stump, Canton, Ohio, says: "I wish I could induce every mother who has a weak, sickly child, to try the delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, as it restored health and strength to our daughter after all else had failed."

Vinol is a boon to weak mothers and sickly children. If it fails to give satisfaction we will refund your money. Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

HIGH SCHOOL VICTORIOUS

Wilmington Team Won From Fayetteville High School on Gridiron Yesterday Afternoon 16 to 0 —Splendid Exhibition.

A large number of football enthusiasts, including not a few pupils of the city schools, journeyed to League Park yesterday afternoon and witnessed with an unusual degree of interest the gridiron contest between the Wilmington High School and the Fayetteville High School teams, the former winning by the score of 16 to 0 in one of the finest exhibitions of the game ever seen in this city. It was the first game of the season in this city and the first time a game has ever been played under the new rules, which proved very satisfactory indeed.

The Fayetteville team arrived in the city yesterday morning at 10:15 o'clock and returned last night, leaving on the 6:30 o'clock train. The game was called at 3:30 o'clock and was divided into four 10-minute quarters. Wilmington scored for a touchdown, in the first, and in the third kicked goal from place after a touchdown, bringing the score up to 11 to 0, and in the fourth scored for another touchdown, making a total of 16 against naught for the visitors.

Fayetteville has a heavier team but the boys did not show as good training as the members of the Wilmington team, who were much faster. Both teams worked the forward pass to good advantage. Those who witnessed the contest were very much pleased with the new rules and no player was seriously hurt during the battle. Blue, quarterback for Wilmington, starred during the entire game, making two touchdowns and kicking goal. C. Burnett, rightackle, also played a star game. In the fourth quarter Wilmington sent Frank Meyers substitute, in to take the place of Penny, leftguard, and Meyers made possible the touchdown in this quarter. All the Wilmington boys played well and demonstrated the fact that the visitors were no match for them. The ball remained in Fayetteville territory practically all the time, as the score indicates.

The line-up of the teams was as follows: Wilmington, centre, Wells; right guard, McKoy; left guard, Penny, E. and Meyers; right tackle, Burnett, C.; left tackle, Boone; right end, Merriman, L.; left end, Taylor, C.; quarterback, Blue; right halfback, Burnett, R. (Captain); left halfback, Hicks; full back, Parsley. Fayetteville: Right guard, McNeill, W.; left guard, Clifton; righttackle, Thomalison; lefttackle, Vann, M.; right end, McFadgen; left end, Vann, C.; quarterback Gibbes; right halfback, McNeill, L.; left halfback, Cooke; fullback, Grady, (Captain).

The local team has arranged a a game with Donaldson Military School for November 19th. These teams met for a game in Fayetteville last week resulting in a tie, therefore there will be unusual interest in the contest here. The Fayeteville team, which was defeated by Wilmington yesterday, recently lost a game to Donaldson to the tune of 15 to 0.

THIRD AND WRIGHTS STREETS.

County Forces Have Completed Improvement of Thoroughfare.

Announcement is made that the work of improving Third street, from Greenfield to Wright, and Wright from Third to Front, which has been underway for some time, has been completed and that the thoroughfares are now open to traffic. The work of macadamizing these streets was done by the county with convict labor under contract with the city government, costing something over $3,000. This improvement has long been desired and the announcement that the work has been completed will be received with interest. Third street will connect at Greenfield with the county macadam road leading to Federal Point. Work of placing material on this road was started Thursday and will be continued as rapidly as possible. The road has been graded for about five miles and only two or three miles remain to be graded before it will connect with the Whiskey Creek road. A force of hands is continuing the grading while another force is engaged in placing the material for the macadam. It will not be a great while now before the road is completed.

Horse, Mule and Buggy Disappear.

Robert Loftin, colored, of Middle Sound, has reported to the police that while he was listening to Booker Washington's address Thursday night his horse attached to a buggy and hitched in front of the Court House, disappeared, but whether the horse was stolen or wandered away he did not know. Nothing further has been heard from the negro and the officers think that the horse managed to unfasten himself and went home. Mr. D. N. Stanley reported to the police last night that a small mule, nearly blind, which he traded for yesterday, had disappeared from his stable. The officers think that the mule wandered back to the home of his former owner.

W. L. I. OUTING AT LUMINA

Members of Military Organization and Their Gues s Have Oyster Roast at Wrightsville Beach. Several Talks.

Members of the Wilmington Light Infantry and those of the Reserve Corps, who were their guests, do not recall a more thoroughly enjoyable social event in the history of the organization than the delightful oyster roast given at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, last evening. It was in every way a most successful outing and thanks of all those in attendance was returned to the committee in charge of the arrangements, composed of First Lieutenant P. L. Cantwell, chairman; Messrs. George Honnet and Clarence Myers.

Some 45 strong members of the active organization and of the Reserve Corps left the city at 8:30 o'clock for the beach on a special suburban car, arriving at Lumina about 45 minutes later where everything had been arranged and awaiting their coming. After the service of the delicious bivalves a number of informal short talks were made which were very much enjoyed. Capt. W. D. Morrow, of Greensboro, who is on the staff of Major Barker, of the artillery corps, was a special guest of the organization, and was called upon and he responded in a happy short speech in which he spoke of military movements. Talks were also made by Capt. E. A. Metts, ex-Capt. T. J. Gause, George Honnet, Lieut. J. B. Lynch, E. H. Holmes, president of the organization; Lieut. P. L. Cantwell, Col. T. C. James, W. A. Wilson and others, at the conclusion of which Mr. W. M. Bolin, the only singer of consequence in the company, was called upon and responded with his famous song, entitled "The Old Gray Mule." It is needless to say that he received the applause of the evening.

The party returned to the city at 11:25 o'clock and each and every one expressed themselves as having had a most pleasant time. Among those in attendance were: Clayton Smith, Jas B. Lynch, G. M. Tromwell, W. A. Wilson, M. B. Wilson, Z. K. Bell, J. Q. Myers, W. A. Peschau, Capt. E. A. Metts, Capt. W. D. Morrow, E. C. Hines, W. M. Bolin, T. J. Gause, E. H. Holmes, F. E. There was much rejoicing at the Y. M. C. A. last night when it was announced at the close of an active membership campaign, that including a few prospects who have practically enrolled, the desired goal of 700 members had been reached, 132 new members having been added during the contest of the past few days. The boys' membership contest will start in a few days and a large number of additional names will be added to the list.

They do not propose to let the membership rest here, however, and will continue their efforts until a large portion of the young men and boys of the community have their names enrolled on the books of the association, and in their efforts they will have the assistance not only of the membership but many other active members.

(Special tSar Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., Nov. 4.—Dr. Booker T. Washington, the foremost negro educator delivered an address here today. The Washington party arrived at 8 o'clock this morning from Wilmington, on a special car attached to the regular train. Immedately after leaving the car the party was conwhere breakfast was served and from there to North Patterson street where a platform had been erected for the speaker and party. Hon. G. B. Patterson, in a few fitting remarks, introduced Dr. Washington who began speaking and spoke for about two hours.

Laurinburg, N. C., Nov. 4.—Dr. Booker T Washington arrived in Laurinburg today about 1 o'clock. The weather being cool and windy the party was carried to the opera house, but because of the size of the crowd to hear him he spoke in the baseball park. There were about 800 people among whom were many white citizens. Dr. Washington's speech was clear and practical, and entirely free from dangerous utterances. He is an interesting speaker and drives his points with apt illustrations. It is believed that his visit will prove beneficial to the negroes of this county.

CONTEMPLATED DEVELOPMENT OF CAPE FEAR GOLF CLUB.

The Cape Fear Golf Club at its annual meeting Monday evening at the club house on the links, east of the city, will consider several propositions looking to the enlargement and development of the club. The property on which the links are located is leased from the Cape Fear Country Club, and among the propositions to be submitted to the Golf Club Monday night are that the Golf Club either purchase from the Country Club its present land holding and sufficient additional land to provide an 18-hole golf course, or to buy an entirely new tract for this purpose, or to induce the Country Club to authorize a bond issue, from which its present stockholders should be paid a dividend representing the increased value of the property, and to increase the capital or to allow members of the Golf Club to become stockholders, the latter organization on its part requiring that each active member hold a share of Country Club stock. The club may also consider the adoption of a financial plan for a stock and bond issue to cover contemplated purchase of property and the cost of putting the links in first-class condition, whether it be through the Golf Club or Country Club. A proposition to increase the membership limit to 200 active and 200 associate members, will be considered. It is probable that a financial committee will be appointed to enter into negotiations with the Country Club, with owners of property adjacent to the present links and owners of property elsewhere suitable for golf links and report to a meeting of the Golf Club to be held December 12th. From the above outline it will be seen that the meeting Monday night will be one of the most important held in some time and a large attendance of members is urged.

SOME OF THOSE WHO WILL TAKE PART IN PRODUCTION.

The cast included in the much talked about "Spielgartenfest" embraces the best of local talent as will be seen from the following list of those who will assume the leading singing, dancing and speaking parts. The matinee performances will be distinctly different from the night productions and the children singing the principal roles will include Elizabeth Powell, Rosalie Burbank, Heiskel Gouverneur, Veritas Sanders, Chares Bidgood Wm. Fenley Robert DeRossett, Gladys Armstrong and others. There will be numerous solo dances by Miss Sadie Booker, Miss Helena Wilde and a number of girls in Spanish dancing, skipping rope, scorff and skirt dancing. Altogether the afternoon performances will be very attractive, being given by children exclusively, presenting a three act comic opera.

Those taking leading parts in the night performances are all "grown ups" and the list includes such well known amateurs as D. F. Hollaway, F. W. Gerken, G. T. Hewlett, H. E. Goodwin, H. L. O'Neill, H. P. West, S. A. Matthews R. H. Grant, A. Empie, B. S. Mills and Mr. Fenley. The list is incomplete but it is known Miss Gertrude Sneed, Miss Pauline Osborne, Mrs. J. D. Edwards, Mrs. J. K. Taylor and Mrs. Joseph W. Yates will all sing solos while Mr. Foote the director and owner of the play will contribute a few musical numbers and dances. The night show is provided for theatre-goers who want a diversity and the "Spielgartenfest" is constructed on those principles, something entirely different from anything attempted before either by amateurs or professionals, having as it does a pot pourri of opera, burlesque comedy ministrelsy and dramatic scenes. The musical numbers were all selected to please the ear and the dances the eye. Elaborate stage costumes direct from New York will be used in the "Spielgartenfest."

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 4.—John A. Dix, addressing the Democratic mass meeting in St. Joseph's hall tonight, appealed to the Trojans to "help to put an end to the infamous system of over-taxation which has become a burden through the exactions of the Payne-Aldrich bill and to the extravagance of the National and State governments."

Mr. Dix devoted the greater part of his speech to a discussion of the tariff and in conclusion pledged himself and his associates to do their utmost to give the people of the State an economical and efficient administration.

"Under the lead of taxation imposed upon us by the recently revised tariff," said Mr. Dix, "we have reached a point where our opponents realize that conditions must be changed. They now suggest that there should be a new revision, thereby admitting the failure of the one so recently made by them, and they ask that the opportunity of revising the tariff should be again entrusted to them.

"I would remind you that in the last National campaign they were entrusted with power only because of their expressed and explicit promise to give the people a downward revision of the tariff, and they have absolutely failed to make such revision.

They have squarely broken the promise upon which they retained power. The Payne-Aldrich bill represents neither a downward nor an honest revision of the tariff and it is a revision which is satisfactory only to the special interests of the country. The Democratic party in this country is the only party which can be entrusted to make an honest and downward revision of the tariff.

"Our opponents have had their opportunity and have misused it. They have been weighed in the balance and found wanting."

MANIACS PERISH IN FIRE.

Government Asylum at Manitoba Destroyed.—600 Patients in Building.

Winnipeg, Man., Nov. 4.—The Manitoba Government insane asylum at Brandon, is now on fire and it is believed many of the inmates have been burned.

The asylum is a total loss. There were 600 patients in the building when the fire broke out at 5:30 o'clock. While most of them were saved, it is thought that a number of lives were lost. A severe snow storm was raging and the scene about the asylum was one of utter confusion, the shouts of the maniacs mingled with the commands of the guards and firemen.

Brandon, Mann., Nov. 4.—The insane asylum of the Manitoba Government which was burned to the ground here late today causing a loss of $250,000, but all the inmates were rescued in safely. One of the women patients playing with matches, she had secured in the kitchen, was responsible for the fire.

There were 60 patients in the asylum at the time and great difficulty was experienced in getting them out. A number were severely injured and others badly shilled in the cold, as a snow storm was raging and they were without shelter.

The pitiable crowd stood around in the snow, their scant garments blown around their frail bodies by the cold wind. The hospital staff, assisted by the military and citizens of the town finally found shelter for them in stables, outhouses and other buildings.

STRIKERS PARADE STREETS.

Garment Makers Still Out in Chicago —No Rioting Yesterday.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Led by a throng of women singing the "Marseilles" several thousand striking garment workers paraded through the north side factory district late today. The marchers visited each of the open shops in this section of the city and shouted derisively at non-union workers and strike-breakers.

But for Chief Steward's precaution in holding a large force of policemen in reserve in various stations, it is probable that serious rioting would have occurred. Several attempts at disorder were quickly quelled by the patrolmen, who made a number of arrests. Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the Woman's Trade Union League, asserted tonight, that the striking women are anxious to submit their grievances to a Board of Arbitration, Mrs. Robins said she believed that the strike will be settled within a period of a few days. The first definite move toward a settlement was made at Hull House at a meeting of the citizens' committee. The issues at stake were submitted to the entire committee which immediately took up the question of finding a ground on which employee and employer may reasonably be expected to reach an agreement.

AT THE THEATRES.

The much discussed play "Graustark," will be presented at the Academy Tuesday night and the local book lovers and theatre-goers will have an opportunity of seeing and judging for themselves the dramatized version of Geo. Barr McCutcheon's famous story

The author's readers are legion and they rally to the support of the play as a unit. The opportunity for dramatic effects in "Graustark" is unparalleled in the history of stage productions where successful novels were the source of supplying the plot. James W. Castle, who staged the original production, was quick to see the posibilities of this startling story and arranged for the theatrical rights, with the result that today, this romantic drama is the most talked of play in the realms of theatredom.

The plot and characters are taken bodily from the novel, and one who has read the book can see his favorites exactly as described by the author in his charming story. As the greater part of this interesting adventure takes place in a country where picturesque dress is in vogue and quaint architecture rules, it gives an opportunity for display of scenic splendor and gorgeous costumes. This has been taken advantage of by the management to the extent that a full sixty foot carload of effects are utilized in the presentation of this attraction.

The cast is selected from among the leading production players and includes such well known people as Chrystal Benson, Chas. Bartling, J. H. Lewis and many others in their support, all ably fitted to assume the roles assigned to them.

Seats will go on sale at Plummer's Monday morning.

The Crystal Palace.

The present excellent bill at the Crystal Palace will be replaced after today with another bill, yet to be announced. The programme this week has been the best yet given at the Crystal and there have been large crowds every day, at each performance. The Texas Quartette continues to make a great hit. The closing performances of the present bill today will very likely be largely attended.

At the Bijou Today.

The programme at the Bijou theatre today will be featured by "The Iconoclast," an excellent Biograph subject, showing how the seed of discontent is sown. "The Deputy's Love" will also be shown. It is an exciting story of the love of a Western sheriff for a girl bandit and his sacrifice of love for duty.

At Joyland.

Three fine pictures will be shown as the bill at Joyland today, the feature will be The Steamship Mauretania," which recently crossed the Atlantic in five days. The picture will prove interesting and instructive. "Curing a Grouche," and "A Yankee Girl's Reward" are the subjects of the other two pictures.

FURTHER ADVANCE IN COTTON

Prices Ranged From Four to Ten Points Above Thursday—Poor Wire Service Affects the Market—Conditions.

New York, Nov. 4.—There was a further advance in the cotton market today and while part of an early gain was lost, the market closed steday with prices ranging from 4 to 10 points above the closing figures of yesterday.

The opening was steady at an advance of 5 to 8 points on overnight buying orders attracted by the firmness of yesterday and in response to the relatively still firmer showing of Liverpool this morning. Owing to a poor wire service, there was very little news except from Liverpool, and business was much restricted, but the bull leaders gave the market support. There was some demand from abroad, local shorts showed a disposition to coiver, and prices gradually worked up to a net gain of about 15 to 17 points, or to the highest level reached since the sharp bulge immediately following the census report last month. Private cables from Liverpool attributed the strength there to the firmness of Southern markets, and a better demand from Manchester, which was in line with reports reaching here from the South late on Thursday, but in the absence of private wires, there was very little news from the South itself, and the market eased off from the top during the afternoon.

There may have been some apprehension that the storms might work into the Eastern belt, where wet weather would be considered very undesirable, but there was nothing in the way of official reports to indicate such a development, and the main factors on the advance were the firm cables, the talk of a better spot demand, an apparent tendency to cut down crop estimates of over 12,000,000 bales.

Spot cotton closed quiet, 10 points advance; middling uplands 14.65; middling gulf 14.90; sales none.

Cotton futures opened and closed steady.

REVIEW OF COTTON FOR WEEK

Wide Swing of Quotations During Past Few Days, But Net Result is Rise—Cheerful Crop Accounts and Estimates.

New York, Nov. 4.—There has been a wide swing of quotations, but the net result of the week is a rise. Recent favorable weather, some very cheerful crop accounts and rumored crop guesses by certain people at the South of 13,000,000 to 13,200,000 bales, together with rumors that the National Ginners' Association was to put out big figures as the total quantity ginned up to November 1st undoubtedly have had a more or less depressing effect. So has large liquidation from time to time attributed to big operators who seem to have been scalping the market on a large scale.

Moreover selling on stop orders has at times had a more or less disorganizing effect. Fall River has been dull. Manufacturers insist that many goods cannot be produced at a profit with raw material at the present level of prices. Southern hedge selling has counted for not a little. Speculation, too, has suffered from the violent swings of quotations. In such circumstances it has been more of a game for big men than for the little traders.

The conviction is strong that the recent widespread killing frosts with temperatures in some cases well below the freezing point could have had but one result and that is the ending of growth over the greater part of the cotton States of the South. In such circumstances they are disposed to believe that the crop is not more than 12,000,000 bales and more likely something under this figure. They also scout Ellison's estimate of the world's consumption of American cotton, 11,-500,000 bales. They think the real figures will be much larger. They also maintain that before the close of the season the price of the raw material will have reached a very much higher level.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE.

Very Little Change Noted in Market. Demand for Dry Goods.

New York, Nov. 4.—R. D. Dun & Co's. weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

Whatever change there is is chiefly in the point of view. It is the characteristic feature of the situation that whereas a few weeks ago business sentiment put special emphasis on the uncertainties of the outlook and the possible dangers involved, now the emphasis is mostly in the hopeful aspects. Yet so far as actual developments are concerned there is very little change and the volume of actual transactions continues below productive capacity.

Recent developments in iron and steel encourage the most hopeful feeling already noted. The execution is that transporting companies will shortly enter the market for needed equipment while the prospective structural work will call for a considerable tonnage of finished material. On the other hand pig iron stocks continue to accumulate and further curtailment of production is planned.

The dry goods market as a whole reflects expansion in retail in demand although labor disturbances cause some anxiety. Cotton goods in first hands are generally quiet, exceptions being in staple prints where the ordering for Spring delivery is good. The yarn markets rule steady but not active.

ACTIVE TRADING IN STOCKS

Speculation in Three Favorite Stocks Gave Market Professional Appearance—Steel, Reading and Union Pacific.

New York, Nov. 4.—The operations in stocks became highly congested again today in two or three of the favorite speculative stocks, giving the market the appearance of professionalism and of direction and control from centralized sources. The great activity of a few commission houses in the enormous transactions in a few stocks added to this effect.

The volume of the dealings in United States Steel again rose to nearly one-third of the aggregate transactions and the sales of Reading and Union Pacific combined were almost as large as those in steel. That latter stock opened at a fractional advance over any prices touched since April last and moved to higher planes by successive stages.

With rumors of a short-term note issue by New York Central, there came a violent relapse in prices and an unsettled closing with many substantial net declines.

The day's market was ascribed to political sentiment to a large extent. Relief from unsettlement is looked for with the passing of the election. The railroads especially are said to be awaiting the opportunity of the relief from political exigencies to place their deferred orders for material.

The call money market was firm again with no loans below 4 per cent., and the maximum for the season rising another fraction to 4 3-4 per cent. The time money market was also strong, the asking rate for 60 and 90 day loans rising to 5 1-4 per cent., with money lending at 5 per cent. for these periods. The estimates of the currency movement indicate another decrease in cash of nearly $3,000,000.

Bonds were steady. Total sales par value $2,049,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks today 677,500 shares.

BULLISH TENOR TO CABLES.

Good Demand for Spots on the Market—Market Very Steady.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, Nov. 4.—Cables were rather better than due this morning. There was a good demand for spots and private dispatches from Liverpool were of a bullish tenor, reporting rather better trade in Manchester.

As the local feeling is now again extremely bullish, our market naturally opened higher on the cables. The storm caused serious wide delay between New York and Washington and practically no selling orders coming through until early in the afternoon. The few orders which then came to hand were on the selling side, with the result that a narrow market lost most of the early advance, closing very steady at some 5 to 8 points above last night. It would appear from the action of today's market that the short interest has again been much reduced, while the long interest has been increased. At the same time the market is very steady, and in view of the bullish sentiment which now again prevails, prices are likely to remain firm until the ginners' report on Wednesday morning. Liverpool is due some 3 or 4 points lower in the morning.

HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Attempts to follow leaders rather than news gave the wheat market unusual action today, weak and strong turns coming in quick succession. Notwithstanding suspicion that the leading buyers had been feeding the pit, the close was firm at nearly the highest prices reached, and with a net gain of 5-8 to 7-8c. Latest figures for corn showed 3-8 to 1-2c advance, and for oats 1-8 to 1-4c. Provisions finished 2 1-2 to 5c dearer to 15c decline.

EXPRESS STRIKERS DEFIANT.

Will Remain Out Until The Union is Recognized.—Conference.

New York, Nov. 4.—Striking employes of the express companies in New York after receiving assurances today from the State Board of Mediators that their grievances would be favorably listened to if they would forgo their demand for recognition of the union, determined in mass meeting tonight that they will stay out until the union is recognized. Their action was the one positive development of the day. Elsewhere there were conferencs among the labor leaders and between Mayor Gaynor and Francis S. Bangs, counsel for the Adams Express Company and the vice president of the Wells Fargo Company, but no final word issued from any of them. The only action taken by the mayor was to uphold the city ordinances requiring that all express drivers must be licensed by the city—a requirement that bars the employment of strike-breakers.

STIMSON CAMPAIGNING.

Speaks of His Relations With Col. Theodore Roosevelt.

New York, Nov. 4.—The Republican candidate for governor, Henry L. Stimson, covered West Chester county in an automobile tonight and spoke at the three principal centres of population—New Rochelle, Mount Vernon and Yonkers.

"My opponents continually assert," he said, "that I am a Roosevelt man. If they mean by that that I am an admirer of the integrity of Colonel Roosevelt, I am free to say that I am a Roosevelt man. But if they mean to insinuate that, in the event of my election, I should administer the office of governor under the dictation of Colonel Roosevelt or any other man, I say as forcibly as I can that not only am I not Colonel Roosevelt's man, but that I am not any manner man."

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Being Held in New Mexico.—Important Matters Taken Up.

Santa Fe., N. M., November 4.—Agriculture and conservation were up before the New Mexico Constitutional Convention today. The convention rejected the unanimous recommendation of the committee for the creation of the offices of Commissioner of Agriculture and Commissioner of Labor, this being done for the sake of economy. The Department of Agriculture was created, however, and placed under the control of the State Agricultural College.

PARLIAMENT IN CHINA.

First in History of That Country.—An Official Decree.

Pekin, Nov. 4.—An official decree was issued today announcing that an imperial Parliament, the first in the history of China, would be convoked in 1913.

This is a concession on the part of the throne to the demands of the recently constituted senate and delegations of the provincial assembly which recently memoralized the government in behalf of the early construction of a general representative legislative body.

DIX IN AUTO MISHAP.

Democrat Escaped With Severe Shake Up—Machine Ran Wild.

Troy, N. Y., Nov. 4.—John A. Dix, Democratic candidate for governor, while en route from Albany to this city tonight figured in an automobile accident when his machine ran into a street excavation at Watervliet and was badly damaged. Mr. Dix and the members of his party escaped with a severe shaking up.

Potsdam, Nov. 4.—Emperor Nicholas, of Russia, attended by Sergius Sazoneff, the Russian minister of foreign affairs, and a suite of 50, arrived here today for a visit with Emperor William. He was received at the station by the Emperor, with the Princes of the Hohenzollern family, Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg and the members of the cabinet. Their majesties kissed repeatedly. Emperor Nicholas will be lodged in the new palace.

Panama, Nov. 4.—The publication today of the cablegram of Panaman Minister Arosenmena at Washington, stating that President Taft emphatically denied a report that the American government was considering the possibility of having to annex Panama and adding that Mr. Taft was Panama's good friend, has made a good impress.

ments to their beginnings, painting here a vivid picture of the birth of insurgency away up in the Northwest when two farmers, one an American and the other a Canadian, living just on the line, began to compare notes of the values of what they had to sell and what they had to buy, the iniquity of the protective tariff system having brought about a civil revolution against the iniquity which has spread like a prairie fire from Maine to Florida and from Sandy Hook to the Golden Gate; yea, even into the very halls of Congress where even Uncle Joe Cannon had to profanely admit "This is Democracy!" It was a movement which had its birth in the American soil and here the speaker digressed for a moment to pay a most beautiful tribute to the American farmer and his home. This revolt against the tariff even two years ago reached such a stage that the Republicans were forced to meet it and they embodied in their platform a pledge for tariff revision downward. The people accepted the solemn pledge and returned the Republican party to power. Has the pledge been kept? The Payne-Aldrich abomination was the answer. The election Tuesday would bring a trial of the question and all the people will sit in the jury box. The verdict will be registered at the polls. He then showed by the best testimony known to the law—by its own records solemn admissions of the party on trial—that it had not kept the faith and Mr. Bickett quoted most effectively from Senator Cummins, of Iowa, and many other National Republican leaders to show that it deserves to die—it is already dead in North Carolina and needs no resurrection, he said. The Republicans had promised to revise the tariff and had juggled it to suit their business friends and had betrayed the American people. They had promised to give the people a square deal and had shuffled the cards in favor of the trusts and monopolies. The speaker chided Taft on his tariff expressions and quoted some tariff schedules that bore pith and point upon their every face.

Taking up the cotton mill situation in the State, Mr. Bickett quoted Mr. S. B. Tanner, the big cotton mill owner of Caroleen and Henrietta to show that what the Republican party had done for the manufacturing interests of the State was more than sufficient to justify all that he had said. He charged that conditions had been brought about by legislation in favor of the New England manufacturer, who saw his business drifting to the base of supply and showed why this industry should be developed here instead of abroad. In the same connection Mr. Bickett took up the effect of the tariff on labor and showed consistently why the higher cost of living has advanced infinitely faster than the increase of wages. He charged that the trusts and monopolies collected in the name of labor from 30 to 100 per cent. in the name of labor, which received only 17 per cent., all in the name of protection, and said that labor could go into any court of equity and recover what it had been cheated out of under the iniquitous system. He said that wages were relative and not absolute. It was worth what it would buy and if the necessaries of life increased at the rate of 67 per cent. while wages increased only 22 per cent. labor was the loser. He illustrated this with the story of the toad which crawled up the well three feet in the day time and slipped back five feet at night. In these times of the higher cost of living, he said, it took a capitalist to buy an egg and a syndicate to float an omelet.

Taking up the cry of Republican prosperity, the speaker engaged in a most effective portrayal of this fallacy, charging that at one time the cry was so loud in the land that every time an old hen laid an egg some Republican orator would flap his wings and crow. He showed especially the conditions in the cotton mills and among cotton mill operatives and dumming up, contended that there was nothing in it for the American farmer, for the Southern manufacturer or for the laboring man. The Republican party was fleeing, it was already a fugitive from justice.

Mr. Bickett discussed State issues very briefly, for the party in North Carolina is dead already and he saw no occasion to breathe life into dry bones. He would make no plea to passion or prejudice. It was simply a question of the records of the two parties and no sane man could give a sound reason why the Democratic party should be turned out. Honesty, efficiency and decency have prevailed all these years and Thos. A. Edison, with all his inventive genius, could not invent any reason why the Democracy should not be returned to power. He told of the Republican record and said that the only joy of Republican rule was the joy of deliverance.

The local self-government plank of the Republican party he riddled with shafts of ridicule and incontrovertible facts, showing that 25 out of the 27 Republican legislators in the House at the time of the passage of the prohibition bill, voted for it, while all prominent leaders of the party took the stump upon the issue. The question was not one of politics but of morals and no party could be saddled with responsibility or irresponsibility for the measure, which was so overwhelmingly ratified by the people. The plank attracted attention because nobody knew what it meant. The Republicans certainly didn't want local self-government in the distribution of patronage from Washington for that would wipe out the party in this State over night. The question was one that should be settled in the forum of every man's conscience. The plank was the tissue of hypocrisy from end to end.

The speaker also told briefly of the danger to the constitutional amendment in the ascendancy of the Republican party in this State. It was indeed pathetic the way the National Republican party toadys to the negro and excerpts from the Republican campaign book were read to show why this was true. He made an earnest appeal to the militant people of the Cape Fear to go to the polls and forever wipe from the State this danger. He said he would not talk about Butler; that was too much like punishment after death, but he discounted very effectively Butler's Raleigh speech yesterday in which he sought to prove that all other men were "liars" and the records are not to be depended upon. No man was ever caught and arraigned but that he denied and that was true of Butler and his accomplice Pettigrew. It was testimony that would be accepted in no court in the land.

Closing, Mr. Bickett said he sincerely hoped that the people of New Hanover would awake to the importance of the present campaign and made a beautiful peroration in which the influence of the character of our leaders is manifested in the development of the citizenship which the Republican party in this State is now offering to a sovereign people.

Mr. Bickett was given the most attentive hearing and the most enthusiastic manifestations of approval. He is already a great favorite in New Hanover. He will be a greater upon the occasion of his next visit here.

Entertained by Committee.

Mr. Bickett arrived in the city yesterday noon over the Seaboard Air Line from Lumberton, where he spoke Thursday night. While in the city he was entertained at the home of his personal friend, Hon. John D. Bellamy, except during the afternoon when he was the guest of Chairman Marsden Bellamy and other members of the Democratic County Executive Committee for a delightful oyster roast at the hospitable home of Sheriff and Mrs. S. P. Cowan, on Greenville Sound, this having been placed at the disposal of the committee in honor of the distinguished visitor. The party accompanying Mr. Bickett went down in automobiles kindly furnished by Sheriff Cowan, Col. John VanB. Metts and Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr. The afternoon was delightfully spent and the return was made to the city in time for the speaker to spend a short while with his host in the city and meet his appointment in the evening.

ANTI-TRUST LAW CONTEST.

Taken Up by Supreme Court.—Noted Lawyers Appear.

Washington, Nov. 4.—A final contest over the interpretation of the Sherman anti-trust law as a criminal measure, began in earnest today in the Supreme Court of the United States.

Noted lawyers filed with the court a brief in support of the holding by the United States Circuit Court for the Southern district of New York, that the statute of the limitations prevened the prosecution of Gustav E. Kissel, of New York, under an indictment, charging him, together with the American Sugar Refining Company and others, with conspiracy to drive the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company out of business, in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

The Federal government had already filed a brief in support of the indictment. It was prepared by Solicitor General Bowers, just before his death, but not submitted to the court until several weeks later. Oral argument of the case has been set for next Thursday.

CRANK CREATED EXCITEMENT.

Fired Blank Shots at Philadelphia City Official.

Philadelphia, Nov. 4.—A man named Harry Clark, thought by the ponce to be a crank, walked into the office of the director of the Department of Public Safety late today and after a brief altercation with Mr. Clay, fired three blank shots at the director. Mr. Clay's clothing was scorched, but otherwise he was not hurt. The shots caused great excitement about the big hall and at first it was believed that the director had been shot.

Clark is about 65 years old. When an attempt was made to put him out of the office, Clark drew a revolver and fired. When other men in the office recovered from their surprise they seized Clark and locked him up.

San Francisco, Nov. 4.—Effie Wilson, the 16-year-old Texas girl, who stands self-accused of the killing of Guido Varsi, who brought her from her San Antonio home to the night life of this city, was ordered released today.
